POLICY

In addition to the responsibilities of membership as defined in the Bylaws, Article III – Membership, an FMCA member enjoys the following rights:

1. To attend national FMCA meetings and receive publications.
2. To attend, as non-voting observers, all meetings of the Governing Board, the Executive Board, any area meetings, and such other committees or boards as may be constituted, unless these bodies are meeting in executive session.
3. To address all boards and committees upon prior notification to the presiding official, unless these bodies are considering personnel matters in executive session.
4. To read the minutes of any FMCA membership meeting and any board or committee meeting. (See Bylaws Article VIII (9), page #6, and Article IX (16), page #8). Proceedings of executive sessions will not be entered into the minutes.
